

STREET BEAT “ What has caught your eye in Brisbane recently ? ”

The Limes Hotel, it's new on Constance Street in Fortitude Valley, and has a cool sculpture at the front, and it looks like it has a rooftop terrace.

ERIN QCUSACK
21 // MILTON

The Picasso exhibition at GoMA is good for Brisbane, especially because it's not appearing anywhere else in Australia.

DENISE WILLIAMS
65 // THE GAP

The redevelopment of Victoria Barracks on Petrie Terrace is going to be impressive, with restaurants, cinemas and a residential precinct.

KAREN LLOYD
55 // EIGHT MILE PLAINS

The North Bank development. Hopefully they will build the motorway underground, so the area looks more attractive.

CORR PICCONE
35 // OCEAN SHORES. NSW

Fallow, a new fashion boutique opened by Natalie Denning. It's up a set of stairs in Cameron House on Brunswick Street, and the clothes are gorgeous.

ELLA HILTON
18 // CLAYFIELD

The strip of eateries and apartments near Teneriffe's old Woolstore reminds me of a New York style of living.

ILSA WYNNE-HOELSCHER
21 // WOOLLOOWIN

